

2021 Arianne Caoili Memorial FIDE Rapid, Gold Coast, QLD – Saturday, November 27th, 2021

A 7 Round Swiss, Time Control 20min + 10sec, 1 Day Event Held by the Gold Coast Chess Club at Nerang Bi-Centennial Hall.

A field of 128 Queensland players entered the memorial one day chess event held to honour the chess and life of WIM Arianne Caoili who passed away in Armenia in 2020 in a terrible car accident. With a total prize pool of over $4125, including $800 in female prizes, for this FIDE Rapid event many strong players joined the field, including 13 titled players. As well, local coaches, past chess celebrities and the ‘young gun’ juniors turned out to support the event, play great chess and learn about the life of Arianne.

The event was opened by past ACF President, Graeme Gardiner and IM Alex Wohl, who spoke about their experiences with Arianne as a feisty, talented junior who blossomed into an incredible intellectual, academic, dancer, jazz singer and philanthropist. With 5 DGT boards set to broadcast live, Chief Arbiter, FA David Esmonde, formally invited all players to begin their day of chess.

Round 1 saw many beautiful match ups for the juniors as they had opportunities to learn from their games with the masters. Photographers, Maria Breeden and Deb Rose, captured stunning images throughout the day but the first round match ups were special. There were no significant upsets in the first round but round 2 saw two juniors have big upset wins with Ekaterina Gratchev (50) wining with black against Bernard Sakran (17) and Nicholas Bond (52) wining with black against WIM Alexandra Jule (19). The tournament was on!

Before Round 3, GM David Smerdon was presented with the Purdy Medal for Excellence in Chess Journalism by Graeme Gardiner who gave an excellent speech regarding the various publications and talents of GM Smerdon. It was also announced to the hall that there were three special prizes being awarded on the day for the Greatest Upsets between rounds 1 to 6 and the players would be presented autographed copies of The Complete Chess Swindler, GM Smerdon’s award winning book before round 7.

Round 3 saw two big draw upsets with Jayden Ooi (20) drawing with GM Smerdon (3) and Elizaveta Gratchev (61) drawing with FM Charles Tsai (13). Elizaveta’s game assembled a large crowd as she played honouring the spirit of a young Arianne pressing a strong advantage against her more experienced opponent. As 61st seed finishing round 3 on 2.5 was an incredible start which played a large part in helping her eventually tie for first female at the end of the day. Throughout the day I was watching the women's and girl's games closely as there was a special award for the Most Courageous Game Played by a Female. One game was nominated from each round and it was young junior, Angela Yuan, who won the award in Round 4 by courageously attacking Kotaro Inukai's position and winning his queen in the early middle game. WIM Alexandra Jule presented Angela with the award which she graciously accepted wearing her pink unicorn t-shirt and full of smiles.

Round 5 saw six players begin the round on 4/4 and three decisive results were earned by GM Moulthun Ly, FM Dusan Stojic and IM Alex Wohl who kept their perfect record alive. GM Smerdon also won to stay in striking distance of ½ point off the leaders.

With the title tension mounting and a $1000 pay day for the champion on the line, Round 6 began. GM Ly defeated IM Wohl on board 1 convincingly in a Najdorf Sicilian where white queenside castled early for effect. On board 2, FM Dusan Stojic held a draw playing the Alapin Sicilian with black against GM David Smerdon setting up a great final round.

Before Round 7, three players were presented with the Greatest Upset Awards, U18 Girl Elizaveta Gratchev (549 points), U18 Boy Jason Leitch (809 points) and Over 18 Max Windsor (922 points) all received autographed The Complete Chess Swindler books from GM Smerdon.

The final Round started with GM Ly only requiring a draw with black to secure first place against FM Stojic. If FM Stojic won, the $1000 and honours would be his. The battle for the minor places was fought over the board with some great last round pairings. Callum Gray (48) made it to Board 2 to face GM Smerdon in the final round, a great achievement. Eight players began the final round on 5 points needing wins to secure prize money. GM Smerdon, NSW's Jack Rodgers and newly titled junior FM Sravan Renjith, each won their matches to finish on 6 points and a share of equal 2nd place. On Board 1, FM Dusan Stojic played a phenomenal Yugoslav KIA game and clinched sole 1st place and the $1000 prize, while GM Ly who was faultless until this final game shared equal 2nd place with GM Smerdon, Rodgers and FM Renjith.

In the Female Division, Round 7 saw Letiesha Simmonds win her final game, while WIM Alexandra Jule drew and Elizaveta Gratchev lost, to all finish equal 1st on 4.5 points and share the $800 prize. The biggest upset of the tournament saw junior Tristan Smith 999 defeat CM Ross Lam 2175 with the black pieces in the final round.

A fabulous day of competitive rapid chess of the highest standard was enjoyed by all participants on the Gold Coast at the 2021 Arianne Caoili Memorial FIDE Rapid. Further images and media from the event can be found on the Gold Coast Chess Club Facebook Page. The organisers announced that in 2022 the 2nd annual instalment of the tournament will see a 6 round ACF Rated weekender be held in July when hopefully the Gold Coast Chess Club can invite entries from Australia wide to participate.
